BEGINNING OF GUIDED TOUR

3 Athens • Kalambaka (Meteora) 355 km Depart in the morning for the small town of Kalambaka. Free time upon arrival. In the afternoon, continue to Meteora, a unique geological formation of spectacular isolated peaks that provided refuge to monks. Visit two ancient monasteries. (BB, D)
 • Accommodation Amalia 4★ or equivalent category

4 Kalambaka • Delphi or Arachova 260 km Depart for Delphi. Free time upon arrival in the early afternoon. Explore the famous archaeological site and visit the Archaeological Museum of Delphi, home of the renowned oracle. Of all the ancient Greek sites, Delphi is one of the most captivating. (BB, D)
 • Accommodation Amalia 4★ (Delphi) or Anemolia 4★ (Arachova) or equivalent category

5 Delphi or Arachova • Antirrio • Olympia • Nafplion 455 km Depart for the Rio–Antirrio Bridge, a cable-stayed bridge that links the Peloponnese to continental Greece, and stop for photos. Then, head to Olympia to visit the site and museum in the afternoon. Continue to Nafplio, tinged with Italian influences and dominated by two fortresses: Acronauplia and Palamidi. (BB, D)
 • Accommodation Amalia 4★ or equivalent category

6 Nafplion • Epidaurus • Mycenae • Corinth Canal • Athens • Crete 228 km Depart for the region of Argolis and historic Epidaurus, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Its theatre is renowned for acoustics so perfect that, even after 23 centuries, you can hear a coin drop on the stage from the back row. Visit Mycenae, the kingdom of Agamemnon. Stop for photos of the impressive Corinth Canal. Continue to Athens, and board your flight to Crete for your three-night stay. (BB, D)
 • Accommodation Albatros Spa & Resort 4★ (Hersonissos) or equivalent category
